REVIEW OF MANUAL PARA TRANSMISION AUTOMATICA 4EAT

- I love this book. At first glance, many of the recipes look a bit "out there," but they are all pretty intriguing so you want to try them out. Once you try them out a) you are surprised at how simple the recipe actually is and b) you are hooked on the book. At least, that's how it worked for me. Personal favorites: my finicky son loved the mac 'n cheese. In fact, it has loads of tomatoes and then, I added spinach to it. So it was healthy in terms of macs. The South Indian Seafood soup was a hit. As was the chorizo/chickpea soup. Looking forward to more cooking with this book!

- This song book has the same tune as Raffi's popular song, but the lyrics are a bit different. For example, Raffi's version says, "Look at all the monkeys swingin' in the trees," and Paxton's version is, "See all the monkeys scritch, scritch, scratchin'!" Kids who have memorized the Raffi version might be surprised at the change, but the song is fun with either lyrics. If you don't know the tune, and can't read the music printed in the back of the book, because the catchy you will want to check tune is part of what it out on YouTube, makes it so fun. Ages 2-6.
