- If you're at all like me, the last thing that you want to put time aside for is planning your estate. Afterall, your lack of good planning is guaranteed to have folks crying at your funeral, especially your loved ones, who must then deal with some very costly problems and challenges due to your inaction. Why feel guilty and why worry? Just buy this very easy to read, eminently understandable guide to estate planning, and put this important task behind you. Were I were an estate lawyer, I would be passing this book out to everyone with whom I come in contact: The first thing I did, when I finished this book was to call a lawyer and finally do the right thing for me and my family.

- The story is an ode to optimism, in spite of all. Is everything that happens in this world for the best? This is the main philosophical question addressed in this book, and Candide will try to prove you that.
