REVIEW OF NOCTURNES FIVE STORIES OF MUSIC AND NIGHTFALL ENGLISH EDITION

- Mr Niederhoffer was without a doubt a great speculator. A winner and a strong competitor in his ventures. This book brought me some good thoughts as to how gaming, gambling and competitive sports corrolate with speculating the markets. Some very appropriate quotes are found throughout the pages and one that was specially appropriate says "Many games are won by players that are smart; many games are lost by players that are to smart". Maybe Mr Niederhoffer has been sailing to fast among the treacheous icebergs of the market seas and forgot to look at the picture of the sinking Titanic hanging on his wall. All in all it's a book that not only traders should read but everyone could benefit from its content.

- A better title of this book might be "Nothing Interesting to Write About". This book was a total disappointment. All the people the author meets and writes about are oafish, selfish and/or unlikeable, including the man she takes as a lover, as well as being thoroughly boring. The one exception is her neighbor Lupe, however her sad and hopeless situation is common refrain in any poor area of any country. Too many children, not enough money. I will say that her descriptions of travel, food and medical care in Mexico have convinced me it is not someplace I ever care to travel to.
