REVIEW OF THE LIGHTNING THIEF PERCY JACKSON AND OLYMPIANS 1 RICK RIORDAN

- This book is the best book of every single one of the NightWorld series. If you love NightWorld and haven't read this yet, you are missing more than you imagine. I've read all 9 fabulous books of the series, and is currently waiting( verry patiently) for Strange Fate to come out, but this will always be the best of all the rest to me. I looove Quinn! He rocks! Actually I love all the male characters in the series ( like Ash, Thierry, Delos, Galen, and Morgead, to name a few). I feel each NightWorld character, no matter good or bad, is cool and unique in a definite way, a trademark of NightWorld of course. This series and this book are truly the bomb!

- The book "The Sword in the Stone" is about a young boy who's friend's father owns his own manor and is a knight. this young boy, Arthur, was nicknamed the Wart by his friend Kay. Kay and the wart are somewhat good friends and live sometime during the 1300-1500's. One day the wart ventures into the woods nearby looking for his friends lost hawk and finds a friendly wizard named Merlyn. Meryln comes back to the manor and teaches the wart about magic and turns him into many different animals to talk to ohters. However, Kay isn't being taught with the wart and becomes jelous. The wart asks Merlyn to change both of them for at least one time, but he can't. So they go on their own adventure with Robin Wood rescuing several lost members of the group of forest bandits. in a castle the two boys find that the queen owning the castle is evil and captured their friends. They get caught in the castle by a giant but get saved by Merlyn. When the boys got to the manor Sir Ector, Kays father tells them that the King has died and the person to pull the sword excalibur from its anvil will be king. They journy to Central England and the two boys try to pull out the sword alone. The wart pulls out the sword when Kay isn't looking and Kay takes the credit. Sir Ector isn't convinced and has both boys try again, and the Wart pulls it out and becomes king.My opinionon on this book is that this a good book overall, I especially like the twists it made to the more commonly known legend and the characters in the book. However, the people repeat words or speak in wierd sentences and sometimes doesn't make sense, but it is still a good book ..Carlo Gangan
