REVIEW OF ALICE IN WONDERLAND CLASSIC STORIES

- After several mishaps, a boy called Jim and his mother find themselves with a treasure map. They get help from the squire Trelawney and Dr. Livesey. Once Trelawney gets the schooner Hispaniola, they get a crew together and head for Treasure Island. During the trip Jim finds out that there are pirates on the ship. They want the treasure for themselves. I believe the theme to this story is expect the unexpected. I believe this to be true because Jim did not expect that he would meet pirates along the way. I got a very good picture of the setting from all the descriptions. Robert Louis Stevenson did not write how the characters felt, which, in my opinion would have been more useful than the descriptions. I could picture myself in the characters shoes and know how it felt. If you like adventure I encourage you to read this book.

- A true classic .. Should be required reading for all children in school. You can not go wrong with this one.
