REVIEW OF PARK AVENUE MANUAL

- Come on! Each and everyone of us who loved Anne McCaffrey's Dragonriders of Pern, Tolkien's Lord of the Rings and Steven King's Dark Tower has one time or another WISHED he/she could write something like that. Mostly in our teens. And thats what happened to Paolini. But most of us understand what a cheap copy of plagiarism this would be. I am just very dissapointed that while the rest of us try to come up with something unique to add to the fantasy genre, some immature wisegyus get to make money out of what everyone could do....cheaply copy out great works of art and shame them in doing so!! just wonder how much he paid Anne McCaffrey to have permission to write about Dragon-Riders and something very similar to a Weyr, while everyone else is threatened with a law-suit by even mentioning the above.Ps: When i read about Gil'ead (copied from the Dark Tower)i rolled on the floor laughing. At least Salvatore and Robert Jordan came up with some different names when ripping off Middle Earth.....

- This is a hoax! This book was not written by a fifteen year old boy! There are things about writing a good book that take years to get just right that no teenager would know. Plus, Christopher's father just happened to be in the publishing business, which tells me that he is the one that wrote it.I'm sure Christopher is old enough now to write his own books, so go ahead and read the later editions with confidence! Until then, try reading Adventures With Boys 5 Dragons Versus Dinosaurs!
