REVIEW OF WEST BENGAL COUNCIL OF HIGHER SECONDARY EDUCATION

- Who would have thought that Palpatine was actually Anakin's father? Or that the chosen one really was Obi-Wan, and how about that sith Qui Gon Gin ghost!?!? What other surprises does this movie hold????just kidding.....good book tho
- I read this book before I saw the movie. I am glad that I did. This book adds to the movie experience. The book follows the movie very closely and there are a lot of things that were not in the movie that the book adds in quite well. The reader gains a fuller understanding of the tensions and conflict that arise between Anakin and Padme throughout the story that the movie was not able to portray. The book also expands on some of the dealings with General Grievous and Count Dooku. This book is a definite read for any Star Wars fan, whether or not you read, it adds so much to the movie experience.
