REVIEW OF FOTO IBU GURU HOT

- A Scholastic Video, "Chicka Chicka Boom Boom", introduced us to Joey and his mom and we liked the story so much that we decided that we must have the book. We searched for it on Amazon but have found that it is not currently in print. Bummer. This is such a delightful book that it is a shame that it is not more readily available. With its simple drawings and funny story it has something for most kids. [Mine who are 3 and 5, boy and girl, ask for this to be read all the time.] The story: Joey is a young kangaroo who runs away from home in order to avoid cleaning up his room. While he is gone, the other animals find out about mama's empty pouch and they approach her with the idea of renting it out. Of course, Joey's mom refuses. Joey searches but cannot find good lodgings. Joey and mom are reunited when Joey finally realizes that there is no place like home and hearth, and besides his room wasn't that messy. Pam T~mom and reviewer at BooksForKids-reviews

- Fans of Brenda Jackson will relish in this tale of the Bennett family's reunion in Macon, Georgia, and the stories that will keep this family in your mind and heart long after finishing. Ethan Bennett, the patriarch of the family and approaching ninety years old, thinks it is time for a reunion, since the last one was fifteen years ago when his beloved wife Idella was alive. He is concerned that his brother's grandson, Michael, has turned his back on the family when he found out he was actually adopted. Meanwhile, Michael has realized his mistake and acknowledges he needs his family to help him raise his teen-aged daughter, since his wife died several years ago. A pilot, he decides to relocate to Atlanta to be close to the homestead. His cousin Taye, a hairstylist, the mother of two girls, is having her own drama, still trying to prove herself because as the smart one, she was supposed to have done great things. Rae'jean, the pretty one, is a doctor who is involved in an interracial relationship, and Alexia is now a famous singer, a swan who was once an ugly duckling. The four cousins were tight at one time, and this reunion promises to renew their bond. But can Michael hold back his feelings for one of the cousins? What would the family think? There are plots and subplots and plenty of characters that make up a middle-class African American family and the joys, trials, and tribulations that keep them loving each other despite their problems.
