REVIEW OF JINX

- The StoryWulf was tricked into being a Dark Hunter. He has been one for 1200 years, he was also cursed to never be remembered 5 minutes after humans leave his presence. He lives a lonely existence only ever remembered by his own blood. Cassandra is the last of Apollo's line, if she dies... end of the world stuff. Wulf meets Cassandra at the werepanther's club. She remembers him when she starts sharing dreams of him. Cassandra seeks him out and finds him. Wulf is charged with protecting her, his attitude changes the instant he finds out she is pregnant from their dreams. Stryker is out for cassandra's blood and has the destroyer coaching him. Thoughts This is my favorite DH book, second only to Acheron. I really like Wulf and Cassandra. They are relatable, likeable and amusing. They are perfect for each other, they both fall fast and hard in love. I liked all the supporting characters as well. We learn more of atlantis, strykerius and the destroyer. I liked the aspect of the baby in the picture. its rare to follow a pregnancy from start to finish in a book, but it really worked for this book. We learn more of the Apolloites as well, things aren't always black and white. The pace in this book is fast pace and enchanting/captivating. Highly recommended!

- "Mastering Arabic" is a bit of a misnomer, because this is more of an introductory book, but for anyone who has ever even started to learn another language, the format will be familiar. Basically, each chapter presents a concept, such as countries and nationalities or numbers, offers several different exercises to help one master it, ranging from reading handwritten Arabic to writing and answering simple descriptions and questions. Additionally, in each of the first few chapters, the authors present a few different letters and their forms. I began learning Arabic with a book specifically about this, so, the first few chapters of this book were a bit of a review, but the authors still kept it interesting. Also, for people new to Arabic, this book will help them learn the script without being overwhelmed as they go. Finally, the CDs that come with this book are a great asset. Learning a language is hard on its own, but it can be harder without any audible frame of reference. In each chapter, there are activities designed to fit with the CDs, and they help a lot. This is a high quality text and great for people new to Arabic, but, to be clear, it will not help you 'master' Arabic.
