REVIEW OF MYCBSEGUIDE CLASS 1

- This was a novel I purchased for my English class. We were instructed to choose one of nine different perspectives to read from, I was assigned sadness. This novel encompasses many more different aspects, but from the view I had taken, this proved to be a great novel with the contemporary spin on religion and how the human conscience adapts to prevail over everyday struggle. I greatly enjoyed reading it, about a two hour straight through session of reading! Very worthwhile.

- There is genius in this book. One must never forget why. If one does, one does die. To never confuse life with death. To never allow passing time to escape. To break forth into the world with every ounce of aspiration and energy, the only inspiration inside yourself. To know that you are alive at the very least. To know that "what dreams may come" are coming only today in these waking moments and never "in that sleep of death." That is all, and so it is TO BE. Why indeed I do love this book.
