REVIEW OF MYCBSEGUIDE CLASS 1

- I had to read this for Language Arts last year and I absolutely hated it. No matter how many times I reread the Staves, I still couldn't understand it. It is just a bunch of details, not a tied-together broad image. If you like to get confused and are in High School or older, be my guest and read this monstrosity.

- From the very first chapter, the author made it seem like he was speaking directly to me. This book is definitely for someone who is interested in Costume Design and wants to know absolutely everything about it, in detail (not for someone already in the field and familiar with how it works). It's not just a book that I'll read and then retire to my bookshelf. As I continue to aspire to be a costume designer, this book will stay by my side for a long time. The ideas he gives you in the first chapter on how to break down the script is easy to learn, with practice. I urge anyone who is interested in this field to buy this book first.
