REVIEW OF INFERNAL DEVICES TRILOGY

- If you haven't read the Canterbury Tales in their native language than you are missing out. It isn't very hard, once you get in the flow of things it becomes just like reading anything else. The Bantam edition allows you to read the translated or the native version. I was disappointed at the amount of tales in this edition though. I was looking for a fuller picture of the tales, yet the translators picked the tales that they felt were the most important and I did enjoy it very much. For any of you out there that want to read the full Canterbury Tales in Middle-English I would suggest the Norton Anthology of Middle English Literature. That is Volume 1A of their English literature Anthology. It shows the full story without any translations. It is very extensively annotated though, so you can decipher the Middle-English vocabulary. No matter what edition you read though, your in for a genuine literary treat.

- Although I have not read this book in years I still consider it the best book I have ever read. You must read this book.
