REVIEW OF ARISTA NETWORKS INC ANET MORNINGSTAR INC

- The Big Bounce was an early (1969) crime novel for which Elmore Leonard had trouble finding a publisher. It isn't Leonard's best novel, but it is still an entertaining book that would make a great read for the beach or a lazy Sunday afternoon. The plot concerns an ex-baseball player named Jack Ryan who ends up working at a resort in Michigan's "thumb" region. Ryan meets a femme fatale named Nancy who is an excitement addict - she gets a "bounce" each time she breaks a rule. Of course,

Nancy is a beauty - readers learn that she was once voted "Miss Perky Pickle" - haha. When Jack meets her, Nancy is the kept woman of a wealthy man from whom she plans to steal $50,000 cash - with Jack's help. Though the novel is an early effort from Leonard, it has his typical strengths. There are several vivid characters to keep the reader interested. Also, Leonard makes the setting come alive. Finally, there is enough action to keep the book from bogging down - I found that the 300+ pages turned easily. While I like the Big Bounce, there are some negatives. Readers may feel disappointed in the way that Leonard ends the novel. He seems to have everything set up for a great conclusion, but the ending is mediocre - at best. Also, Nancy is extremely unlikeable. In later novels, Leonard greatly improved the depth and realism of his female characters. I am surprised by the negative reviews on Amazon.com. The Big Bounce is not perfect, but it is a solid, readable crime novel. Leonard's fan should read it.

- Just what I wanted. This book came on time. Thank you for having it so I could use it in my Bible study. homeland
