REVIEW OF HANDBOOK OF LINEAR ALGEBRA SOLUTION MANUAL

- Lois Lowry's "The Giver" would be a good read for a child. But lacks the literary greatness that I've come to expect in books. In my opinion, this was just a wrip off of Ray Bradbury's "Fahrenheit 451" produced in a manner that is more up to date and understandable. By now, we are aware of conformity, and with the Soviet scare now longer at our backs, maybe the subject is dead?

- i thought the giver was a really great book..i loved the story of it..but some things obviously didnt make sense..ex: EVERYONE went to the ceremonies, but the night crew was at the Nurtuer

Center..and other things like that..but other than that..i loved the book..also..the ending? what was up with that? i dont like how there really was no ending..lowery should have jus made an ending..and told us.
