REVIEW OF NAGOBA MICROBIOLOGY PDF

- This is an excellent book to prepare for the exam. I didn't come across any question on the Exchange 5.5 exam that was not covered in this book. Do all the practice questions in the end of the chapters and you can't fail the exam. Don't bother wasting money on the Transcender for this one.

- In my opinion, Charles Dickens remains the writer who defined the art of characterization in the 19th century. This novel contains a bevy of characters that the readers will find unforgettable. The haunting figure of Miss Havisham has stayed with me since my 10th grade literature class (almost 30 years ago) and my recent rereading of the novel brought her horrid existence into full view again. The plot has twists and turns and although I found myself having to stop reading and letting certain episodes sink into my understanding, the beauty and scope of the writing is truly remarkable. As a young student of Dickens, I resisted the long descriptions and difficult dialogue and I don't remember loving the book when I read it the first time. As an adult, however, my admiration for the novel is undeniable.
