REVIEW OF ADVANCED MATHEMATICS STUDENT RESOURCE GUIDE ANSWERS

- Rich characters, refreshing originality, a good story, and plenty of surprises. Not much to criticize except to say the story is unorthodox and the ending is peculiar...both of which add to the satisfaction if you like the unexpected. I was looking for something different and absorbing and was rewarded with O'Brian's work. Highly recommended.

- After being so disgusted with crochet magazines and pattern books that cater only to the novice crocheter, this book is quite refreshing (not a freakin' doily in sight!). The patterns are wearable and trendy. I love the accessories such as the clutch bags (pg. 137), the fat-bottom bag (pg. 155) and the 'ruffled corset belt' (pg. 231). I also like the 'Cupcake' top (pg. 165), maybe in not such a pastel-like color; short 'n sweet shrug (pg. 169); I love, love, love the 'prepster' jacket (pg. 191), it'll look great with a pair of dark wash jeans. My son has already gone wild of the 'jolly roger' sweater (pg. 199); and my first project from this book will most likely be the 'unseamly sweater' (pg. 203), which is my favorite project. Oh, I must mention the 'froufrou' sweater (pg. 211); the 'baroque' jacket (pg. 217). I'll be displaying projects from this book on my blog: <http://boundbymyhook.blogspot.com>. This book is worth every dime!
