REVIEW OF THE BOOKSHOP PENELOPE FITZGERALD

- I was totally amazed from the time i read the first chapter of this book. J.R.R. Tolkien brings you right into this amazing fantasy world. The book is mainly about a hobbit who lives in a hole. J.R.R. Tolkien puts in some awesome detail about his home. A hobbit is a humanlike creature that lives underground, smaller than a dwarf. The book starts when Gandalf, a mysterious wizard, and a group of dwarves visit the hobbit. They bring the hobbit on a long journey to defeat Smaug, a dragon that sleeps on gold and jewels. this book is action packed right from the thrid or so chapter. One of my favorite parts was when the hobbit fights many giant spiders. Any lover of fantasy books has to have read this. This book will keep you reading all the way through, the ending is awesome by the way, and Gandalf plays almost no part in the book but does in the other books from the series. The Hobbit came dangerously close to being my all time favorite book (almost beating Harry Potter and the Sorcerers Stone). This book is a must have!

- The Hobbit is a very good book. It is about a hobbit (a little, outgoing, creature) who is asked to steal treasure from a dragon. He goes with 13 dwarves and a wizard named Gandalf. He fights giant spider, goblins, wolves, and ogres. This was my favorite book and I highly recommend it.
