REVIEW OF NUVI 360 USER GUIDE

- This book might not have been very accurate, but the author did tell us at the beginning of the novel that not everything was accurate. Its a very compelling book about how brave children fought the German army. They fought from the heart like true soldiers. Even though this book is not very accurate it is a good book to read, it shows what bravery is.

- To betray Modesty Blaise is to, at minimum, risk the wrath of Willie Garvin and, at most, to lose everything you hold precious. In SABRE-TOOTH, Modesty and Willie follow up on a hunch of Sir Gerald Tarrant's which turns into a horrific reality. When Jack Fraser tries to intervene in the midst of their infiltration, he is summarily ousted. The stakes are jaw-droppingly high as Modesty and Willie are pushed to their not-inconsiderable limits. The amount of damage done to and by them is enormous, but Peter O'Donnell never loses sight of Modesty and Willie's greatest asset: loyalty to each other. SABRE-TOOTH is a razor-sharp trip into the world of Modesty Blaise!
