REVIEW OF AISC STEEL CONSTRUCTION MANUALS 13TH EDITION DOWNLOAD

- I despised the essay/story called "Possession" and felt that Sedaris has dropped to a disgraceful level of insensitivity. I can't find anything even remotely humorous about the Holocaust. I'm not at all saying he thinks the Holocaust is funny but I don't joke about it like I don't joke about slavery, wars or other examples of man's ability to become sadistic monsters. Who knows, maybe Anne Frank finds it funny from somewhere beyond the grave but I can't. I, too, have been to Anne's secret annex in Amsterdam. It was a place to mourn and a reminder to not be hateful in our own lives. I loved "me talk pretty" and even liked the quirky, selfish character he portrays himself to be but the stories in this book are bland and that single story made me feel immensely sad.

- Dougy is a superb novel that gives the idea of the racist concern of Aborigines in Australia. When Dougy's sister, Gracey, is chosen for the State Athletics Championships, people in their small town was not all pleased. During the fight between the whites and blacks in the town, Dougy learns to be a leader for his family. It is up to Dougy to save his family, from the war and the mysterious Moodagudda. Dougy is the first book in James Moloney's trilogy. Must read all of them.
