REVIEW OF CANON EOS 550D MANUAL DANSK

- I first heard of this play around 30 years ago when it was performed by the upper classes of my school in England. I never forgot it and decided recently to purchase the play and to read it. The story takes place in an insane asylum in France around the time of the French Revolution, where The Marquis de Sade was kept for a number of years. He wrote a play about the revolutionary - Jean-Paul Marat, which was performed by the inmates of the asylum. However, the play is much more than that. It really is a commentary about about how people behave toward one another during terrible periods of time. I think it is a remarkable play - sometimes a little horrifying - but very well worth while picking up to read. I whole heartedly recommend it.

- This book is very professionally written and is an amazing first book for Mr. Armstrong. The amount of effort and research that went into this tiny book is overwhelming. I am very impressed with the accuracy of detail and emphasis on how important the Harvey Girls were to our history. I would definately recommend this book as a "Must Read" to everyone in the hotel/hospitality industry. Nicely done!
