REVIEW OF DEMOCRACY AND ITS CRITICS BY

ROBERT A DAHL

- Although an intriguing tale, the author fails to acknowledge that Our Lady's message is one of love and repentance and then substitutes tolerance of sin. Berry's characters are interesting but he takes too many liberties for my liking. A good read but as far as Fatima fiction, I place this book far below Windswept House and Secret of Fatima.

- It was a good read. Weak ending. I've read worse. His other two books had better endings, however, up until the end it was good. The history lesson was useful. I would buy this book again. Now that I think about it I did buy this next one "the Templar Legacy" so what does that tell you.
