REVIEW OF JEPPESEN GUIDED FLIGHT DISCOVERY PRIVATE PILOT TEXTBOOK

- I only gave this book 2 stars because it felt like a disappointment. Purchasing this book over the internet without looking through the book first at a local bookstore was a mistake. The System had a few good points, but on the whole it basically restates common facts like making eye contact, playing hard to get, and some basic psychology of women. When I first got the book I was surprised that it was so small; easily readable the first time through. Misspellings and typos also caught me offguard for a published book with such a distinguished ranking on Amazon. I wish there were more precise instructions/outlines for do's rather than don't's (ie. mirroring a woman's body language). My advice to you is to skim through the book before you purchase it to see if it's of value to you. I am considering purchasing The Art of Seduction by Robert Greene as a necessary follow-up.

- I bought this book for a class and ended up liking the book. The chapters are broken down into well organized themes. She used scripture references to reinforce concepts and weaved everything together to make sense of it all. There are several questions throughout the book that made me not only reflect on what I had just read, but on experiences from my life.
