I toni sono tipici di questo tipo di letteratura dedicata ai "guru" e quindi ogni dettaglio è presentato in salsa un po' sensazionalistica, esaltando e magnificando qualsiasi evento della vita di renzo rosso, conferendo al tutto un'aura cripto-religiosa. E' un libro da cui si può trarre qualche spunto di filosofia manageriale.

forza di guardare in faccia la realtà, e reggere lo sguardo. Se negli anni '90 Renzo Rosso poteva permettersi di chiudere tutti gli spot della sua azienda con lo slogan Successful living, vita di successo, che era un modo simpatico per fare ironia sullo stile di vita di quegli anni, in questi tempi turbolenti quello slogan apparirebbe obsoleto.

REVIEW OF REDVOLUTION VITA E PENSIERO DI RENZO ROSSO LUOMO CHE HA CREATO LIMPERO DELLA DIESEL VARIE

- Once again, thanks to Amazon for making these classics FREE on the Kindle. I love it. Now to the book - I believe the other reviewers here have covered it quite well so I will just add a few words of comment. First of all, it is wonderful - totally engrossing. I think it was originally several novels that George Elliot (pen name of Mary Ann Evans) ultimately combined into one novel and serialized it. The serialization must have driven the readers mad because the tension builds almost unbearably. I could not wait to get back to it - and it is a long book. Elliot skillfully weaves so many stories into one long thread and they all work together so well. I don't recall ever reading it (at least I could not remember the plot line) but I did see the Masterpiece Theater version (1994) and recalled the story of the severe preacher/scholar Edward Casaubon and his innocent wife but not much else, so that put all the more pressure on me to keep reading. It was such a release to get all the issues more or less resolved at the end! Whew. Netflix has the Masterpiece Theater series on two DVDs and I can't decide if I am going to look at it again or not. It would be nice to see how they handled the characters but I don't know if I could bear all the tensions again! By all means read this wonderful novel.

- This delightful and intriguing novel, which takes place in the small town of Middlemarch, is far more than a trio of love stories, personal entanglements, and breeding ground of secrets. Middlemarch is also an interesting commentary on period views on gender and class issues. A pleasure to read and you will be wiser!
