REVIEW OF INSTRUCTION S FOR BOSCH MAXX CLASSIC

- I used to own a bookstore and when people would ask me my favorite book, I always named "Middlemarch." In my opinion, this is the greatest book written. George Eliot was a towering intellect and a masterful observer of humanity. Sure, you have to really focus on this book while you're reading it, but it's worth it. Dickens was a piker compared to Mary Anne Evans (the author's real name). Make the time to read this novel someday (along with Moby Dick, Ulysses and War & Peace).

- That Reverend Curtis is sum'n else! These preachers are greedy dogs (so says Isaiah). They can never get enuf satisfaction. They want Sister Sally and Sister Sally's momma and her grandmomma too. They just can't get enuf of that funky stuff. This book told the naked truth about these so-called Reverends. It was a well-written, entertaining novel and deserves 4.5 stars. I recommend it especially to those of you that knows that y'all's pastor ain't no-good! Maybe it'll wake you and shake you to leave that vulture of a preacher. But if you know that your pastor ain't no good and you choose to stay under his teachings, then all I can say is that birds of a feather, flock together.
