REVIEW OF THE REFLECTIVE PRACTITIONER DONALD A SCHON TLAWEB

- This book has stood the test of time for managers, because it is simple and goes for the jugular, but why manage when you can optimize? If you want to achieve more than satisfactory results with people and do more than manage situations, if you want to optimize situations and bring out the best in people, read and implement Optimal Thinking by Rosalene Glickman, Ph.D. (John Wiley & Sons, 2002) too. Both of these books are classics!
- Went through what felt like a hundred books, this one had everything, month-by-month just when i needed it. It wasn't frightening like most others. Baby picture for each of the ten lunar month, with cute facts and expert answers to questions you just dont want to ask your doctor or friends. It's the only book I took out for my second pregnancy!
