REVIEW OF CDC ANTIBODY HIV CASE STUDY INSTRUCTOR GUIDE

- Simple, practical, easy to read. It is a must if your are interested about how to raise your child. Congratulations
- Even though Fr Cizek tells his story in a matter of fact and emotionless manner, the story is deeply moving. Fr Cizek's trust in Divine Providence notwithstanding his 5 years of interrogation at the Lubyanka and his 15 years in a labour camp is an extraordinary manifestation of the grace of God. His story gives an important insight into the madness of the communist regime - its obsession with the "rule of law" (far from it!), the strange politness at times of the KGB - a monumentally evil and irrational regime which somehow tried to cover itself in a veneer of law and reason but which was ultimately rotten to the core. Thank God for Fr Cizek's witness to the faith in the midst of such inhumanity. AMDG!!!Incidentally, to get the full picture, one really needs to read the companion book: "He leadeth me". In this later book, he gives a commentary of his time in Russia and the hard spiritual lessons he had to learn (particularly in the Lubyanka) in order to learn to trust in providence. Without this later book, one might be tempted to just see Fr Cizek as a man of unbelievable natural strength and see his faith as a gloss but in the later book he makes it crystal clear that at all times it was his trust in God that sustained him. God bless you, Fr Cizek!
