REVIEW OF THE LINUX KERNEL MODULE PROGRAMMING GUIDE TLDP

- This is a perfect book for any animal lover and future vet , like me.I learned a lot from this book. Very good book for vets.
- I've now read all of Berry's books and although I mostly enjoyed the story lines, I progressively grew weary of how Berry re-writes his own version of Christianity into each one. I realize this is fiction, but each story seemed to try harder to change some truths about Christianity. I read The Third Secret last, and finally have decided to stop reading Berry's books. Writing about Mary, the mother of Jesus, visiting the earth and telling us that heaven approves of homosexuality and that abortion is just fine if that's what the mother wants??? I realize that not everyone believes the Bible. But if you do, these two issues are clearly defined as sin. Interesting that in his "Writer's Note" at the end of the book, he discusses what is fact and what is fiction...but absolutely fails to mention his own fictional words he put into the mouth of Mary. Decent story until this ficticious third secret is revealed.
