REVIEW OF MANUALE DELLA REGISTRAZIONE SONORA HOEPLI HSEIN

• My three-year-old daughter, Joy Winter Wilson received this book when she was two and has been obsessed with it ever since. Unfortunatly the book was quite worn out from her older cousins, James, Jordan, and Jared who loved it to pieces--quite literally. Still, we have spent many a night shining a flashlight into the pop-up Mansion and talking about the mysterious thief and oooohing and ahhhhing over the secret passageway, and the clues, etc. It is facinating how riveting the story and the pop-ups are to children. We are looking for a replacement book today in time for Christmas. The Russian Ruby is a GREAT BOOK! I highly recommend it.

• Padovano remarks early in this book that "biography is spirituality," and uses Merton's life to guide us back to what is sacred in our own normal lives. Indeed, for Padovano and Merton, the search for spirituality is nothing less than the pursuit of being perfectly normal--or as Padovano might say, being normal, perfectly.
