REVIEW OF TOYOTA 7FGCU25 FORKLIFT M

- This is one of those books you look at in the store or library and look at it with an open mind but dont give it much attention. YOU COULD DO NOTHING WORSE! This book deserves FULL attention, and it is great for beginners and experienced numerologists alike. I use it more for a reference book when I do readings for others, and it helps immeasurably. It is very colourful, and very informed. Teaches you how to use numbers in everyday life, what your birthdate means, what your name means in numbers, what the vowels in your name mean etc. etc. etc. IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR A SIMPLE YET HIGHLY ACCURATE BOOK FOR NUMEROLOGY, THIS IS IT. I had a party with my friends, and pulled it out just for fun, and it surprised everyone how accurate it is. It will help you to understand your souls true purpose, and what you need to do to better your life. Highly Highly recommended.

- These stories are pervaded with a certain sadness and disappointment, a sense of life as largely a trial in suffering. They are also however deep in a kind of quiet beauty, a unique language of slightly Yiddishized American colloquial restraint. The title story, and the most famous one tells of the hopes and disappointments of poor Jews seeking to find their 'bashert' their destined mate. It touches upon the world of tormented souls selling illusions to themselves and others. It really moves us with the sense of how the dreams of life turn bitterness into greater bitterness, with longing disappointment beauty. These stories are for those who are willing to read and take inspiration from the sadnesses of life, that nonetheless enrich our human meaning.
