REVIEW OF BOOKS BY STEPHEN KING ARJFC

- This classic book is a must read for all. I read this way back in high school but rereading it now (decades later) gave me even more insight. Should be put back on the high school reading lists. Great book, especially the second time around.

- I love reading historical fiction, and, especially, historical fiction surrounding the stories of slaves who either escape or make the attempt to escape to freedom. Their bravery and persistence and endurance beyond what any human should have to endure awes and inspires me. This book is interesting in that the author is able to write, it seems, in the diction from the time period, which adds to the authenticity and the reading experience. It can sometimes get hard to follow, though. The author also uses the "trick" of speaking directly to the reader at times when she wants to "instruct" or impress something upon the reader. At first it was impressive, then a little tiresome. Love the period details and the rich character development through mostly dialogue.
