REVIEW OF DENIM AND LACE

- Having worked in the internet business during the timeframe encompassed by this book I found it quite interesting to hear an "insiders" account of mergers, acquisitions, raising capital and running an internet start-up during the early days of the 'Net. The book is insightful, fast paced and often humorous. I truly enjoyed it.

- Burn Rate does for the Internet what Liar's Poker did for Wall Street in the Eighties. It strips away the sheen of self-righteous assurance that most Net entrepreneurs wrap around themselves, and shows that there are, in fact, real, living breathing human beings involved in this business, not automatons who believe they've excised the baser instincts from their souls...Like several of the other reviewers here, I too have met many of the characters in Burn Rate, and I can tell you that Wolff's portraits of everyone I know hit the bullseye squarely in the center. If you want to laugh out loud and find out what it's _really_ like inside the Net industry, read this book.
