REVIEW OF 6TH GRADE EVERYDAY MATH JOURNAL VOLUME 1

- Very disappointing, unlike her other books, we spend the whole book in Kay's mind, who is the Diva here? I'm not interested in finding out that Kay is beautiful or has beautiful breasts, it's the autopsys and the mystery I miss. Plus, several unanswered questions, Why was the body put in the container? among others.
- As always, Cornwell puts out a really good book, sure to keep you behind in everything around the house because you can't put it down. I highly recommend it and all her other books featuring Kay Scarpetta as the main character.
