REVIEW OF MOONWALKING WITH EINSTEIN EPUB

- I bought this book for a good friend of mine who is single. She had been looking in all the right places, but had trouble meeting Mister Right. She said she knew what she wanted in a guy, but she never really could verbalize her list. This book helped her create a real list of qualities she wanted in a man and I can't believe it, she is actually going out on high quality dates. I would imagine at this pace, she'll find Mister Right before long.
- This book was so ridiculous I couldn't finish it. The bar scenes the pick-up lines the author described were so trite and phony I felt like it must have been a flash-back to Studio 54. I honestly don't think the author has ever experienced the bar/pick-up/dating scene. It felt as though she was writing about what she thought it would be like and certainly not from any personal experience. I found the situations so unbelievable I laughed out loud. Do some research next time, Ms. Cruise because believe me you are way off base here. I gave it one star because I liked the cover. Read The Devil Wears Prada or the Nanny Diaries instead.
