REVIEW OF HAWAIIAN SHEET MUSIC FOR KANAKA WAI WAI

- When it was written in 1948, Before the Cold War, Communism was a popular idea in England. Orwell, who avored Trotsky over Stalin, fought in the Spanish Civil War and fled for his life because of Stalins rise to power. Orwell considered himself a Socialist, but he warns of socialism to the extreme. This book is a testament to mankind's willingness to forget the past.

- This book is unrelentingly, amazingly depressing. It's absolutely graphically realistic in it's descriptions, and the story - I'm gonna give it away here - does not end happily. I read this in high school and have never forgotten it; it frightened me then and it still frightens me. The word is bleak. You should still read it. You should not only read books that give you happiness, or catharsis, or what you want; those are candy for your mind and will not tell you harsh truths. You should also read books that give you gifts you don't want, gifts that make you uncomfortable or upset or frightened. Books that point out things you'd much rather you could ignore and hope they'd go away. That's why this is a classic; not because of stupendous writing or anything else (I've seen better writing). I still hate this book. And I still gave it 4 stars.
