REVIEW OF THAT FACE POLLY STENHAM SCRIPT DOWNLOAD

- This was a very good read from start to finish. The characters were interesting, the plot well developed, and there's a nice unexpected twist at the end (though most people could probably figure it out if they were really paying attention). This book works well as both a romance and a thriller, and the author has done sufficient research to lend authenticity to the radio station, police work, and psychological aspects of the book. Well done and highly recommended!

- I was given this book, which by the bindings you can tell was already well read, by a friend who is in AA. she told me to open the book to any page and just read, read out loud. As I began to read I also began to cry, something I don't do much. this book has touched me in places I didn't know I had, my soul. I have bought several copies of this book and have given them to friends I thought it could help and it has and now they too are buying copies and passing it along to their loved ones. I couldn't imagine my life without this book now. I Thank my very dear friend for opening up this new door for me.
