REVIEW OF CHILD DEVELOPMENT BERK 9TH EDITION

- I'm sorry, this book completely sucked. It was so stupid and childish that I felt like scribbling all over it. Trioculus was a jerk & not very impressive. I expected an Imperial to be more impressive. One thing that really bothered me was that the author kept on making LUke fly Y-wings. I mean, Luke flies X-wings!! He did in the movies & in the books. There were a bunch of other stupid things in the book. And one friendly comment to the author : Watch the movies.

- Patricia Springer writes a decent true crime book about the abduction and murder of a six year old Texas girl named Opal Jo Jennings. She was murdered by a pedophile who is obviously lying to the police from the very start. I had trouble with that part of the book. I didn't believe the killer's lies and bull stories about him dropping her off at the store. He was obviously the kidnapper and killer but failed to find her remains until five years later. The story begins with Opal and two year old cousin Spencer who witnesses the abduction and her cries for help. Saginaw, Texas is the last place that you would expect something like this happen in broad daylight but it did. It can happen anywhere. Opal was living with her grandmother while her mother strived to make a living in North Dakota. She had allowed her own mother to gain custody of Opal for a better upbringing. The life on the street is never the same again.
