Each name of God is like a rope, with one end in the Hands of God and the other end in the hands of man. Man calls God through His names and God responds to man through His names as well. In this manner a perfect communication will eventually be established between man and the Divine. This volume of the Expansions series discusses the names of God, understanding them as a key component in man's relationship with God, the source of life and light.

The 99 Names of Allah Peace Vision

INTRODUCTION Belief in the existence of God is part of the inbuilt knowledge of man, in harmony with his most basic nature. Even before we were created in our present states, acknowledgement of this was carved into our nature. Allah is absolute and so too are His qualities. While created beings may have a claim to many of these attributes, the reality of our limited selves and our properties in contrast to His infiniteness (in Being and qualities) means that the similarity ends in the names. We may have knowledge, for example, and Allah also is the Knowing, but our knowledge is so restricted and bound by quantity, detail, time, dimension and memory that there can be no comparison with the absolute knowledge that is Allah's. His attributes, then, have been mentioned to us merely to give us a glimpse of His limitless vastness and completeness; no mind can ever fully comprehend infinity. The bottom line in understanding the Being of Allah is, therefore, "there is nothing like unto Him" (42:11). This booklet is a very brief attempt to present before those who wish to know God, a concise guide to these most beautiful Names. They have been compiled in the light of what God has said of Himself in the Qur'an and what His beloved Messenger, who knew Him best said of Him in the Ahadith. Still, it is humbling to bear in mind that Allah is One so boundless in Self and Qualities that even the vast oceans could not do justice to Him.

In the first volume of the Sacred names series : "The 72 Names of God: The 72 keys to Transformation" I discuss the power of the name. Knowing a name gives you power. In this book we will discuss the 99 names of Allah, what they are, and how to use them to instill in yourself with the power of God. Throughout the mystical traditions of the world, several traditions stand out as luminaries. One of these luminous traditions is Sufism. Sufism is the mystical tradition of the Muslim faith. Like any spiritual tradition, mystical interpretations are often hinted at in the main body of religious texts, but other books are needed to decipher the inner mysteries of an established canon. This applies to Islam as well. Islam's main holy book is the Quran. A beautifully written and deep tome. Often, in the west we do not see the depth of Islam because it has been shrouded in the deeds of a few radical people who have lost the true spirit of the Quran. This is a shame because the Quran is quite a deep book. It is much more than a book on how to conduct ones life. It is a manual for divine enlightenment. Its deeper mysteries are hidden in the text and voluminous works like the Hadith are used to tease them out. In the Hadith it discusses the 99 names of God. These names are essentially 99 qualities that God possess. These names are meant as guides in our own life. If you have ever seen picture of Muslims holding beads in their hands, those beads are used to chant the 99 names of Allah. This tradition is very much embedded in Islamic tradition. In this book, we will learn how to tap into the 99 names of Allah and acquire the 99 divine qualities.

Sahih Muslim is a collection of sayings and deeds of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) (also known as the sunnah). The reports of the Prophets sayings and deeds are called ahadith. Muslim lived a couple of centuries after the Prophet's death and worked extremely hard to collect his ahadith. Each report in his collection was checked for compatibility with the Quran, and the veracity of the chain of reporters had to be painstakingly established. Muslims collection is recognized by the overwhelming majority of the Muslim world to be one of the most authentic collections of the Sunnah of the Prophet (pbuh). Muslim (full name Abul Husain Muslim bin al-Hajjaj al-Nisapuri) was born in 202 A.H. and died in 261 A.H. He travelled widely to gather his collection of ahadith, including to Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Syria, and Egypt.

REVIEW OF 99 NAMES OF ALLAH

• It's important to realize that Hawthorne grew up in the same atmosphere as his protagonist Hester does in The Scarlet Letter. In this powerful novel, Hester is forced to wear an emblem of shame after having an affair with an unknown. Out of suffering the town's hatred and ridicule, Hester isolates herself and her new child away from the intolerant town. Yes, Hawthorne condemns the ignorant nature of the town as Hester is a walking symbol of strength. Hawthorne depicts the towns members of doing evil things against her such as conspiring to take away her child in response to her refusing to reveal her lover's name. But then, the novel takes an interesting turn as Hester questions the eternal state of her soul. Is she a true sinner for having this child out of honest love? Would a higher being punish Hester for such a thing? The characters in the plot will all beg for your sympathy, and you will want to give each character as much as you can. Hester's husband may be sadistic and completely unsympathetic, but he has nevertheless been a victim of her affair. Hester's lover is constantly in a pitiful state. In addition to garnering sympathy, it's interesting how Hawthorne manipulates the roles of each character in the plot so that they serve as symbols of Hawthorne's greater purpose. This is the case particularly with Hester's child, Pearl. As you read this, pay close attention to her role as the catalyst for all of what happens in the plot and the transformations she causes all the characters to experience towards the end. This was an extremely moving tale, though not completely perfect. It lagged on after the beginning to a point where the reader wasn't that active in the plot anymore. For me, I felt that the focus was shifted away from certain aspects I thought were more important. Overall, I've read Hawthorne's other short stories and this wasn't his best but he had a fascinating obsession with religion and its impact on American society.

• I did not remember how good this classic was until I read it again. I originally read it in high school many years ago, and it was better the second time around..
