REVIEW OF DIPIPM

- Witty, clever, and full of great characters and images. Laughed out loud a number of times. The plot was compelling and kept my interest, though at some point things began to bog down a bit. The chatty, meandering prose put me off at times. I thought I read Dickens was paid by the word for some novels, and I did get the sense that GE would have worked better as a shorter novel. Still, an enjoyable read. Keep a dictionary handy to deal with some of the antiquated and/or vernacular language.

- I had great expectations, because I had listened to a very good Charles Dickens recording by Martin Jarvis earlier (Hard Times), and Great Expectations was also good, even if it did not make me laugh quite as much as the Hard Times audiobook.
