REVIEW OF CHAPTER 17 SECTION 5 THE COLD WAR

- I was standing in my local bookstore, which as usual didn't have what I was looking for, browsing the School Reading List shelves for a book I could get extra credit in English I for. I scanned over this book several times before I remembered a friend telling me that it was one of her favorite books. I also remembered a friend telling me not to waste my time. I decided to buy it to see what my opinion was. I was pretty sure I wouldn't like it because I am normally a fantasy reader and don't usually go for this kind of book. But when I got home with it I picked it up and it stayed permanently attached to my hand until I finished it. I was finished in two days (about two hours total reading time). I won't say I recommend this book for everybody. If you don't like to think, if you prefer to view everything as having a distinct happy ending, if you hate symbolism, if you are an extreme pacifist, or if you only read books that have absolutely no profanity in them, this is DEFINITELY not the book for you. Anyone else should read this book at least once. And I mean the whole book. Don't give up on the first ten pages. Oh, and just so you know, I am not some highly educated professor typing this from a computer in her office. I am an ordinary high school freshman.

- Absolutely the very best book written in modern history which shows us the value of our convictions! If you never read another book, DON'T MISS THIS
