REVIEW OF DICCIONARIO BASICO ESPANOL MONOLINGUAL ESPANOL

- This book is a gem. Southern fiction at its best. Price is a master at the art of story telling. History will regard Price as one of the finest, if not THE finest, southern writer of our times. Don't be misled to think this book is all about Sept. 11th, however. That is merely the setting for this master's tale.

- First, I think I'll mention Richard Bandler's name so as to give credence to my comments. On second thought, no, I won't either. Having settled that, I can tell you that Nick really knows how to weave a trance that will keep you spellbound as you begin an inner adventure that will take you places you've never even dreamed of ... and yet ... will bring you safely home again. To your own, true self. Nick is a master of both indirect and direct hypnotic suggestion, yet even as he gives you direct instructions, you still know ... at the same time ... that the direct suggestions in here are just to set you free. Free from fear. Free from compulsion. Free from pain. I've listened to the CD twice so far and I'm here to tell you that after the first listening, only, I discovered I had recovered my old sense of confidence. And now. Now that I have that sense of confidence instilled deep within me ... never to be wrested away again, I can only wonder what I might decide to do with ... and because of ... it. If you, like me, don't easily experience deep trance ... I'd suggest you give this CD a listen. It's well worth your time!
