REVIEW OF SANLU GROUP AND THE TAINTED MILK CRISIS ZUMBEE

- I just completed both Light from Heaven, and the one selling with it. If you like Christian-fiction, Karon's books are must reads. Once again, Jan took me away from my world, to a place full of adventures, love, laughter, and tears. If you have not read anything from her before, I would suggest you start from the beginning of the series, and read them all. I don't think you'll be disappointed. In another realm (non-fiction), Passenger's Side was just wonderful. This is the kind of book that will surely be changing lives. It has given me help in some areas of my life where I needed it, and some renewed hope. I would also call it a must read.

- Drink With the Devil This is a story centered on the troubles in Ireland. An undercover catholic militant plots to assist the PIRA in heisting a fortune in gold. The heist goes smoothly, only to have the ship that they escape on occupied by evil men, who want the gold for themselves. The boat and the gold, sinks to the bottom of the sea. All of the thieves survive, and only one knows where the ship went down. Ten years later, the Mafia wants the gold. They link up with the IRA to find it. Both are looking for the PIRA people who were with the gold. The one who knows where the gold is in a prison, where his PIRA daughter works as a nurse. The Catholic terrorist, Sean Dillon, has begun to work with the British Secret Service. Now the Mafia is after them all. This is a great thriller for all those who love thrillers. This is also good for suspense readers. I would recommend this to almost anybody. This may also interest those readers on the Ireland problem. I really enjoyed this book because the characters were very believable. Also, the plot was easy to follow, but also held you in suspense.
