REVIEW OF BLACK SWAN AFFAIR K L KREIG

- William M. Hoffman's 1985 play "As Is" was one of the early plays to portray characters with AIDS in a living light. While the play tends to get dark, it ultimately teaches the audience that people with AIDS are feeling human beings just like everyone of us. When this play came out, it showed people a side of AIDS that people had not seen before. The human side. The play is breathtaking, and I highly recommend it.
- I thoroughly enjoyed this book. It is a touching, well-written story with a good plot and a lot of heart. If you have a sentimental side but still want intelligent writing, this novel is for you.
