REVIEW OF SISTEMA DE SEDUCCION SUBLIMINAL DE LIBRO

- While this book does contain a lot of information, it's mostly fluff. Also, if you do your research, a lot of it is way off. This book was written for the fluffy bunnies, not for the serious practitioner.

- I am disappointed with this novel. I've lived in the mountains portrayed in this novel all my life and really tried to like this story but I just can't. It was very interesting in the beginning. Ivy's take on the world as a child is humorous and witty but sadly these attributes seem to vanish as she gets older. The older she gets the more simple-minded she seems. She is more of a spectator of life as an adult, just relaying events in her letters without the witty observations she provided as a child. Some of the situations are just absurd also. A grown woman running off with a man she has met twice, leaving her husband and children, and living in a cave together in the mountain above her home just to have an adulterous relationship? It's ridiculous.
