REVIEW OF TEACHING SKILLS WITH CHILDRENS LITERATURE AS MENTOR TEXT

- Sherry Argov explains the different dynamics in the male gender behavior in a simplified and easy to understand manner. I was a victim of the stated circumstances but no longer as now am informed on how to be me and yet a feisty. I recommend this book to all ladies, as knowledge is power.
- Ms. Argov repeatedly stresses that selfishness, abasiveness & rudeness are not the attitudes to have. The definition usually attributed to the title "Bitch" is not what she is urging you to be. For baby boomers back on the dating scene after years of marriage (like me) this book is excellent. Society & our parents RAISED us to cater to men, and in most cases after raising children and being a housewife, you have lived for everybody else for decades. That will work against you in this day and age. This book helped me to put a relationship that was important to me back on track - without EVER disrespecting or taking for granted the man in my life. There were no "GAMES" involved - it was simply a matter of ME learning what some of you already know and implement without even thinking about it!!
