REVIEW OF COMBINING LIKE TERMS TEST DISTRIBUTIVE PROPERTY ANSWERS

- It is really difficult for Americans to comprehend a culture as different as traditional Moroccan culture. In particular, the lot of women, confined in domestic harems and obliged to submit to male rules, seems intolerable. This lovely book gives a portrait of one Moroccan family living in a traditional way. Or are they? Rebellious ideas abound, and women find ways of stretching restriction. The stories are beautifully human and funny. It is easy to be critical of another culture that seems so different, and I would never be able to live that way. But I feel that I have a better understanding of how they did. I sent a copy of this book to my mother.

- I've used this book in teaching "Introduction to Microcomputers" and "Introduction to Windows 98" in 5 week classes at Lane Community College in Cottage Grove Oregon. It is useful for the beginner who cannot even use a mouse to people who are fairly experienced with Windows 95. The book is well organized and indexed, with windows shown in color. What is most useful to my students, is the 1, 2, 3 approach to doing a task, practical exercises and an easy to use reference to have on hand for later use.
