REVIEW OF FUNDAMENTALS OF EU REGULATORY AFFAIRS SIXTH EDITION 2012

- Heim and Hansen have done it again! I bought Free Stuff for Quilters for my wife, and she loves it. We bought Free Stuff for Crafty Kids for our children, and we all love it. The beginning of the book is solid Internet information, the stuff everyone surfing should know. The meat of the book is a large assortment of "crafty" sites for everyone, young and old, of all skill levels. Sure we could find similar sites on our own. But why bother? Heim and Hansen did all the work and leave us with all the fun. I'm making kites with my son. My wife and daughter are polishing their drawing skills and learning about rubber stamping. I highly recommends this book!

- I see more in C. Jay Cox than just the surface humor, horror, and treatment of this book. This author is tempting us to laugh and love in spite of the hypocritical quirks or our birth cultures. My favorite character was the Bishop who excommunicated our hero. My impression of his brain size has something to do with a thimble. [...]
