REVIEW OF KOKATE ENGLISH SPEAKING BOOK DOWNLOAD SUCHMASCHINE WINDEL

- I absolutely LOVED this book! I'd give it more stars if I could! The ending is totally unique, but it's just perfect. I wouldn't change a word of it. A different ending would destroy the book.
- The Giver is an excellent book for all ages. It is very interesting and makes you read straight through to the end. The story is about a twelve year old boy named Jonas. Jonas lives in a futuristic society that is "perfect." The community is controlled by sameness and everyone is exactly alike. The people have no recollection of their past and have no feelings. They have never experienced love or hate. Though it may sound ideal, as you read, Jonas discovers through his highly respected and important job that perhaps things could be better. In his job he must keep the memories of the past so that the rest of the community does not have to experience them. Despite his memories of death, war, hunger, and such, he begins to realize that the good memories overpower the bad ones. In his desperation from loneliness and frustration Jonas makes a drastic decision, that will change the lives of the community forever. I really enjoyed this book, as I have read it more than once. The only downside that I found to it was the ending. I have never liked endings that leave you hanging, as this one does, and I wish that there was a sequel. But, in general, I recommend this book to people of all ages. Enjoy!
