REVIEW OF BCOM CA 2ND YEAR MODEL QUESTION PAPERS

- To me this was a very informative, eye opening, and thought provoking book, because the author pulls no punches and tells it like it is.

- Elizabeth Spear's book "The Witch of Blackbird Pond" was fantastic! It really pulled you into the story, and made you feel as though you were there witnessing the action event yourself. Spear does a great job of describing the characters, and giving you a poion of them. The main character Kit Tyler, is a girl in her late teens. She hates her new life in the Connecticut Colony, it is so different from the Caribbean Island, Barbados, from which she moved when her Grandfather died. Now her new life with her Aunt, Uncle, and cousins , leads he to the place where she meeets the woman Hana Tupper,known as "The Witch of Blackbird Pond". When their friendship is discovered, Kit is accused as a Witch herself! This book is a great story of friendship,loyalty, and adventure. If there was a rating higher than the Newbery, this book would get it!
