REVIEW OF PRESTWICK HOUSE STUDY GUIDE ANSWERS

- Peter Jackson has created an OUTSTANDING masterpiece in it's own right with his interpretation of the "Lord of the Rings" trilogy... but Tolkiens books are some of the best literature of the 20th century.Jackson takes several liberties with some key points of the story line, not the least of which is making Frodo a "Naive Young Hobbit" when in fact, Frodo and his companions didn't set out on their quest to Rivendell until AFTER his 50th birthday. Little inconsistencies like that between the movies and the books about, reason enough to pick up copies of the books to see Tolkiens original narrative.

- Yes, this was a good novel like the other two. (And yes I know it was written as one novel) But Again we have so many names to remember it was a chore to keep track. Also I thought the end was a tad weak, on Mt Doom, but thats just me. Actually Frodo makes out quite well in the end and I was satisfied. Cheers!Just and aside. I thought the movie of part one was very Good.
