REVIEW OF TAROT FOR WRITERS

- This book is a very boring book. Maybe I am just saying that because I had to read it for school, but this book doesn't make any sense. I see no point in this story whatsoever. There are some good points that are wonderfully written. other spots in the story are unbelievably hard to understand. This is not one of those books that you can't put down; moreover, it is one that you can't pick up. The plot is very hard to follow and in the end none of the main points seem to all tie up in some main ending. Maybe the point of the author was to leave you hanging, but I don't know. Oh well, don't waste your time with this one and try either OF MICE AND MEN or INTO THIN AIR.

- This is the first novel of Philippa Gregory's that I have read. I loved her style of writing, and the story she told. This book was very hard to put down. This is a great book for all.
